

Regulations for Using Pearson Study Prep Materials

1. The Pearson Study Prep Materials are made available free of charge exclusively to candidates who have registered for the entrance exam at Poznan University of Medical Sciences, with the aim of supporting candidates' preparation and fostering smooth and well-organized entrance exam attendance.
2. The access is limited to the first 150 registered candidates who meet the eligibility criteria.
3. Each eligible candidate will receive a unique, individual access code after completing the entrance exam registration process.
4. The access code is personal and non-transferable.
Sharing, forwarding, or using the code by third parties is strictly prohibited.
5. In case of unauthorized use, sharing, or breach of these regulations, the University reserves the right to block access to the Pearson platform without notice.
6. The Pearson platform provides access to multiple courses. For entrance exam preparation, candidates are advised to use the courses recommended by the University, which are:
 - General Biology,
 - Anatomy & Physiology,
 - General Chemistry,
 - Introduction to Chemistry,
 - Physics.
7. Detailed login instructions and technical guidance will be provided to eligible candidates separately.
8. Access to the materials does not guarantee admission and is intended solely as a support tool for exam preparation.
